TELEGRAPHIC

From our "Postscript" of yesterday.

MEMPHIS, 22d

Official advices from Grant to 19th, note, report that some important advantages were gained by our forces on the 18th

The siege was progressing satisfactorily

General McClernand had been removed from command of the 13th Army Corps, by General Grant, and General Ord put in his place.

MEMPHIS, 21st

Steamer Lumpkin, from Chickasaw Bayou with official reports from Grant, arrived to-day

Everything was progressing finely. The enemy kept up a steady fire of heavy artillery

Scarcely a man had been injured on our side

Col Mower, in command at Milliken's Bend, made an expedition to Richmond, La, and drove the rebels from that section. He burnt the town, and brought the women and children to Milliken's Bend.

He states positively, that the rebels carried a black flag with skull and cross bones in the recent attack on Milliken's Bend. Johnston's forces are moving towards Yazoo city. It will lead Grant ready to receive them

YOUNG'S POINT, 17, via Cairo 22d

On the 20th, Marmaduke's cavalry captured a wagon containing what purported to be six barrels of flour and three boxes of goods but on examination were found to contain over 600,000 percussion caps packed in flour. The boxes contained stationery. The whole was permitted to pass out of Memphis. Documents were also found implicating certain well known merchants of St Louis as the guilty parties.

WALNUT HILLS, 17th

A rebel Lieutenant captured yesterday says Pemberton's purpose is to the sooner than surrender

There was picket skirmishing at Haines' Bluff yesterday and Monday. The rebels are reported to be advancing on our defences at that point

NEW YORK 23d

The Herald's specials tonight from Harrisburg give the following items

Rebel Gen Rodes has 10,000 men and 30 pieces of artillery, of which 5000 are on the road to Downsville.

The rebels again took possession of Chambersburg this morning, Gen Knipe falling back to Shippensburg, removing all the Government stores

Capt Boyd is in the vicinity of Green Village, retreating before the rebel advance, and furnishing information of rebel movements

The rebels guided all the stores in Chambersburg, and steal alike from professed friends and Unionists

All the refugees are unanimous in stating that the rebel Gen Jenkins is very severe in his contempt for copperheads

BALTIMORE, 23d

General Halleck visited Baltimore to day, and inspected the fortifications and other defensive works in progress here. He expressed great satisfaction at the rapidity with which they were prepared, and admired the zealous loyalty of the Union Leagues arming for the public defence

BALTIMORE, 24—12 20 A M

Information received at headquarters of Gen Schenck tonight, and other sources state that Gen Ewell's force, to the number of from 35,000 to 40,000 men, are now in Maryland, in the Boonsboro valley. They have a large quantity infantry, cavalry and artillery. They are building bridges across the canal, and are actively engaged in foraging the country, collecting supplies &c. They crossed at Antietam Ford and Sheppardstown.

LOUISVILLE, 23d

There are reports from reliable sources that Gen Morgan has recrossed the Cumberland, near Carthage, having remained but a short time this side. He had 4000 men and 16 pieces of artillery. He was closely pursued by Colonel Wilder of the 7th Indiana, commanding a brigade of mounted infantry.

[Evening Despatches to the Times.]

Hooker in Consultation at Washington—Admiral Dahlgren Going to Charleston—General Gillmore Relieved of his Command—General Beauregard on the Move—$300 Bounty offered to Returned Soldiers

NEW YORK, 24th

The Herald's Washington despatch says the President has been engaged nearly all day in consultation with Gens Hooker, Halleck and the Secretary of War.

Gen Lee's forces is evidently on a line along the Valley of the Virginia, between Gordonsville at Upper Potomac

A distinguished officer has expressed the opinion that Gen Lee means to get the people of the valley and the adjacent country, and obtain as many horses and cattle as possible, before our army may be in a condition in autumn to again advance upon Richmond.

It is understood that Gen Halleck went out this afternoon to visit the army

The Times' despatch says Admiral Dahlgren was today ordered by a vote taken at a cabinet meeting of 5 to 3, to Charleston, to take the command that is substantially vacant by Admiral Foote's illness.

Gen Milroy it is understood has been relieved of his command

Col Cantrell, reported killed, is believed to be only slightly wounded, and a prisoner. His death is not known at Pleasanton's headquarters

The Times' Upperville, Va., despatch of the 23d, says, today Gen Pleasanton having completed the work for which he was sent into this vicinity, commenced to move his force to another field of operations, when a portion of Stuart's command, smarting under the disgraceful defeat of yesterday got within range of his guns and they (the guns) and the rebels both went off. The enemy seeing that they were closely watched very prudently kept at a respectable distance

NEW YORK, 24th

The Petersburg, Va., Express speaking of the Union gunboats going up the Chickahominy says—"Whether this is to be a base of operations for a new move on Richmond, or merely a feint to reduce Gen Lee's grand army now marching upon Washington, we are unable to say."

The Tribune's Washington despatch says the Richmond Enquirer of Saturday mentioned a rumor that Extra Billy Smith, just elected Governor of Virginia, was killed in the battle of Winchester

There is no news of importance that can be published from the front, but there is still conflicting evidence that no rebel force worth speaking of is now on either side of the Bull Run Mountains.

Mrs Martin Patterson of Jackson, Miss., convicted of being a spy at Murfreesboro, Tenn, has been sentenced by court martial to be imprisoned for life at Jeffersonville Ind

One hundred and thirty-six rebel privates and 15 officers arrived here last evening from Middleburg, captured from Stuart's command by General Pleasanton on Sunday

It is stated that by a recent law the proceeds of all prizes captured by a superior force after a contest, as in the iron clad Atlanta, go entire to the captors—the government taking no share of them

The Tribune's letter, dated Gen Pleasanton's headquarters 21st, says Gen Pleasanton learns satisfactorily that the two corps of Ewell and Longstreet are near Winchester, accompanied by Lee, and that the corps of A P Hill is now coming up the valley to join them

U S Marshal Murray of this city has received a letter from Daniel Sargent, U S Consular agent at Mathewstown, Bahamas, dated June 16th, in which the following interesting postscript appears—

By an arrival from St Thomas, via Porto Rico, we just hear that Semmes and three of his officers have been transferred at St Thomas, on board a 18 gun frigate, just out from England. His First Lieutenant left the Alabama

The Georgia, for that is the name of the new craft, has, it is said, two heavier guns than any on board the Alabama

NEW BEDFORD, 23d

On the 20th, at 6 p m, the smack L A McComber, of Noank, Ct, while at anchor about 22 miles east southeast from Block Island light vessel, was boarded by the bark Tacony, and burned. The crew were ordered on board of the bark, but on application were allowed to leave in their boats, and reached South Shoal light vessel in safety. They were taken from the light boat by the schooner Antietam, and soon after after transferred to the smack Eastern Star. One of them, Mr S Morse arrived at Edgartown on the 23d

The bark Tacony was painted black, yellow figure head, white carved work on the stern single opening, one boat on starboard quarter, and carried one brass 24 pounder rifled gun

SAN FRANCISCO, 23d

Late Oregon advices say that the Government commissioners have concluded a treaty with the Nez Perces Indians of Idaho, granting them a reservation 70 miles long by 25 wide, situated south of Clear Water River

NEW YORK, 24th

The Baltimore American of yesterday afternoon says the rebels were driven out of Fredericksburg by a detachment of the regular cavalry from Washington, after a brief skirmish in the streets, who pursued them until they crossed the South Mountain. The enemy did not number over 200

The recruits gathered by the rebels left in a panic.

Information from Maryland Heights, says the rebels are only in small force in the mountains and had made no attempt to advance on that point

Harper's Ferry was still nominally in our possession. The bridges are fully protected by our guns

The nearest rebel force was about five miles off, at Little Antietam

NEW YORK, 24th

The pirates Alabama and Virginia were at Bahia, May 14th, the latter without armament

CINCINNATI, 24th

The Gazette's correspondent near Vicksburg, 18th, says it was intended to open with hot shot upon the city on the 20th

NEW YORK, 24th

A rebel report states that all the contrabands of Jeff and Joe Davis's plantation, have been carried off by the Yankees. Also that the implements of husbandry and furniture have been destroyed

The Tribune's Washington letter says Government has determined to offer a bounty of $300 to the returned soldiers who will re enlist for the war, who are to form a special corps, the Government to be reimbursed man for man for this $300 from the substitute fund to be raised under the draft

Senator Sumner is to present to the President to-morrow a memorial from respected citizens of Massachusetts, asking from the Government an authoritative declaration of purpose to protect the colored soldiers, and a letter from Governor Andrew heartily endorsing the prayer

A SLAVE CAPTURED HIS MASTER IN BATTLE

A Vicksburg correspondent, giving an account of the late fight at Milliken's Bend, mentions the following

"Among the incidents of the fight worthy of note was the capture of a rebel soldier by a negro who was his slave three months ago. The Texan was caught in a tight place by one of Col Lee's men, who cried out to him, 'Hold on dar and put down your gun, or I'll shoot.' The rebel surrendered unconditionally, but after identifying his captor said to one of our officers that he protested against being held as a prisoner by his own slave. 'It's good enough for you,' said the officer, 'that's just the man to guard you.' And, Jim (addressing the soldier) if he don't behave himself, shoot him down.—The chivalrous southerner was very indignant, and his wrath effervesced in a series of oaths, which fell upon the ears of the 'intelligent contraband' without effect. The dusky warrior kept a close eye upon his prisoner, but refused to hold any conversation with him, or answer any of his questions as to when he enlisted, or how he dared to level a gun at his master."

An amusing scene occurred in a city car the other day, between a couple of men, one of whom wanted to keep a window shut, while the other was determined to have it opened. The latter (whom we will call Smith) finally raised the window. The other (we'll call him Jones) at once let it down. Smith vehemently put it up. Jones emphatically shut it down. 'What do you mean sir?' said Smith, fiercely, raising the window. 'I mean to have this window down,' answered Jones, suiting his action to the word. 'I mean to have this window up,' retorted Smith, suiting his action to his word. 'We'll see,' said Jones, grimly, again put it down.—'Just so,' responded Smith, shoving it up. 'Exactly,' said Jones, and down came the window. 'Precisely' exclaimed Smith and up it went.—'Just as I before remarked,' said Jones, with a sneer, and down it came again. 'There, there,' said Smith, shattering the glass with his cane, 'I'd sooner pay for the thing than be suffocated.' And he did pay for it, and so enjoyed the fresh air and the applause of the spectators, while Jones left the car after giving a few hacking coughs (as though the fiery current was striking in his tender lungs) by way of appealing to the sympathies of his fellow passengers.

A New York paper which has had but few rivals in the art of abusing and misrepresenting the war measures of the Administration, says:

We regret to be called upon to chronicle, as we do to day, a bloody resistance to the enrolment, in some portions of Indiana and Pennsylvania. We should be sorry to see these lawless acts imitated elsewhere. Nothing but mischief, and anarchy, and bloodshed, can come of them. It is the bounden duty of all good citizens to submit to the conscription law, as to all other laws, whether good or bad, until such laws as they are set aside by the competent tribunals. Resistance to them under any circumstances, it is well understood, is rebellion—nothing more, nothing less, and as we have rebellion enough already on hand in the seceding States, we cannot afford to have any more of it, on such pretexts, nearer home.

This is a correct doctrine; but what shall we say of the copperhead paper which puts it forth, and of its colleagues in mischief? From whence sprang this "bloody resistance to the enrolment?" Who instigated the deluded men engaged in it, thus to rush on their own destruction? Who, but the very editors of papers like the above, who are now so "sorry to see these lawless acts?" They now consider it "the bounden duty of all good citizens to submit to the conscription laws until they are set aside by the competent tribunals"—but while thus pretending a regard for law and order, they have directly, and we think in some cases intentionally instigated an armed resistance to the laws. What course could more certainly have produced that effect than the one which has been adopted by nearly all the democratic papers since the conscription and financial laws were passed, and in fact since the war began? They have constantly and most bitterly denounced these laws—particularly the former—as being utterly unconstitutional and wickedly oppressive of the people—of no sort of legal validity, and certain to be set aside by the courts—that the war itself is wicked and unnecessary, and is ruining the country and the people—that the South had just cause of complaint, and that the treasure and life sacrificed by the Government in an attempt to conquer the South, has been thrown away in an unholy cause—and finally that every man who volunteers or is drafted, will but go forth to fight in a hopeless war, for that the rebels are sure to whip us in the end. After such teachings as these, what perfection of coolness is it to affect astonishment at seeing "armed resistance to the conscription!" Could such a result be possibly doubted? If any one will go into the rural districts even in our own State, listen to the speeches made to ignorant and unreflecting men, and read the newspapers which are put into their hand to read, he will only be surprised that they have not incited "rebellion" months ago. The legitimate fruits of the wicked misrepresentations of lying demagogues is beginning to be borne at the west, and for the consequences to the deluded men, the leaders and papers of the democratic party are alone responsible. Every attempt of the kind will be promptly and sternly put down by the Government. We only wish that the punishment could fall upon the authors of the mischief.

In the late movement of General Hooker's army from its base at Aquia Creek and Falmouth, not a dollar's worth of portable property belonging to the Government was left behind or destroyed. One and a half millions of army rations were brought away in good order. All the rolling stock of the railroad was carried off and even the windows and doors of the unsurpassed buildings erected for the use of officers were saved and transported to Washington.

THE DISTURBANCE IN PITTSBURG. The war fever does not abate in Pittsburg. Business is generally suspended and citizens of all classes are giving their means and support to the work of placing the city in a condition of defence. Volunteers are constantly arriving from the interior, and some of the forts are nearly completed, while lines of rifle pits are already fit for service. Twelve rifled guns have been placed on some of the works. When completed there will be over twelve miles of intrenchments commanding every approach to the city. So says the New York Post.

ATLANTIC MONTHLY. The July number is before us. It commences the the 12th volume. "Doings of the Sunbeam" is the opening article, written by Oliver Wendell Holmes; "Outside Glimpses of English Poverty," by Nathaniel Hawthorne, is one of the author's most interesting. English sketches; "Gail Hamilton" serves up New York, Saratoga, &c; Prof Agassiz furnishes an interesting and instructive paper on "The Growth of Continents." This is only a part of the bill of mental fare for the month, but it is enough for the money it costs, and more.

Correspondence of Whig & Courier.

ACQUIA, June 24, 1863.

"Smith," remarked Crayon to me yesterday, "Smith, my health is bad—it compels me to relinquish my correspondence with the Whig. I require rest that will restore me so that I shall be able to respond to the draft. Now the Whig must be supplied with valuable information—let the editors know what is being done here—drop them a line occasionally." This appeal, so urgently made by a valued friend, struck a sympathetic chord in my generous nature—and staying just long enough to advise Crayon to start forthwith for Togus, where, undisturbed by wretched subordinates, he could recruit his wasted form, rushed for the Adjutant General's Office, and found the following list of military commissions, issued to-day:

Eugene Lockman of Pittston, 2d Lieutenant, company I.

Official notification has been received of the acceptance of the resignations of the following officers of Maine Vols.—

Second Lieutenant T N Coffin, 9th regiment, May 18th.

Lieutenant Colonel Robert F Campbell, 11th regiment, May 23d.

First Lieutenant John F Milliken, 8th regiment, May 20th.

Colonel B Roth, 9th regiment, May 22th.

The monthly report of the 6th battery, just received, shows it to be in most efficient condition under the command of Lieut. Col. Dow.—Major McGilvery writes to the Governor that of eight batteries which he had just inspected, the 6th Maine was in advance of the rest for drill, discipline and the soldierly bearing of the men.

Though Maine newspapers do not brag as hard about Maine regiments as do some of their Boston contemporaries concerning the valor of Massachusetts regiments, yet our State does have in the field a few organizations which would do credit even to Massachusetts.

The Boston Journal's correspondent speaks of Allie as a battle ground enriched by Massachusetts soil and hallowed, blood. It is indeed enriched and hallowed by the blood of every brave soldier who there fell a sacrifice upon the altar of his country, whether his home may have been Massachusetts or any other State.—Maine there lost many noble sons, men like Col. Douty, who fell while bravely turning the battle's tide. The Maine Cavalry thus added lustre to its good name. As at Brandy Station a few days before it had saved the day, so again at Aldie its vigorous and timely charges decided the contest which was turning against us. All honor to the men of every State who fare death for their country.

Yours respectfully JOHN SMITH

THE CAVALRY FIGHT AT MIDDLEBURG. The following letter from Mr. Geo. A. Bartlett of Company M, 1st Maine Cavalry was received on Tuesday by his father, Alonzo Bartlett, Esq., of this city.

NEAR MIDDLEBURG, Va., June 25th.

Dear Father, and all:—I am all right bodily but weary and almost heart-sick. Lieut. Taylor is dead! I can hardly believe that we shall never see his pleasant smile or hear his noble voice any more. He cheered us on in the charge yesterday, and led as he always has. There was something about that man that drew all towards him.

I held his horse while he placed Sergt Warren in his saddle and carried him off the field. Warren was mortally wounded while leading his platoon in the charge. He was as brave as a lion.

I cannot give you an account of our three days' fighting, but you will see our losses. Such fighting never was beaten. Col. Douty, Capt. Summat, Lieuts Kimball, Nowell and Taylor, killed, and Lieuts Montgomery, Vaughan and Hall wounded, and nearly a hundred men killed and wounded.

Charles Johnson, our Orderly Sergeant, is going home with Lieut Taylor's body.

[Lieut Taylor belonged in Lisbon, and Sergt Warren in Atkinson.]

United States District Court.

JUDGE WARE PRESIDING

WEDNESDAY, June 24.

The grand jury came in this afternoon and reported four bills of indictment—three against George Marston for stealing from mail letters and packages containing articles of value (at Amherst), and one against Edward F Freese, for enlisting a soldier to desert.

There being no further business before the grand jury, they were discharged.

Freese arraigned, pleading not guilty, was discharged on his own recognizance for his appearance at Bath at the September term.

Marston arraigned, pleaded guilty. To be sentenced to-day (Thursday).

Docket called.

Court adjourned till to-day (Thursday) at 9 o'clock.

☞ We learn that the proceeds of the lecture of Mr. William Wells Brown (colored) on Monday evening last, amounted to $41.70. The avails of these lectures are detailed by Mr. Brown to the service of the contrabands at Port Royal and Fortress Monroe, through the hands of the "Freedman's Association."

☞ At the Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of the Maine Telegraph Company, holden in this city yesterday, the following named gentlemen were unanimously elected Directors for the ensuing year, viz:

Hiram O Alden James White, Belfast.
Albert W Paine, Jacob A Smith, Albert Holton, Bangor.
James S Redlon, William P Merrill, Portland.
Aaron Hayden, Eastport.
Edward O'Brien, Thomaston.

At a subsequent meeting of the Directors, Hiram O Alden was elected President, and Wm P Merrill Secretary and Treasurer, for the ensuing year.

HARD SWEARING. A little fellow of four, in our neighborhood, was overheard recently talking in a very earnest tone to a playmate:

"I shan't play any more with you, Jimmy.—You swear, you do."

Jimmy indignantly denied the charge.

"But you do swear. I heard you swear. You called your brother a pismire, you did."

☞ Company D, State Guards, First Division, was organized at Ellsworth on Tuesday—Major General Butler, presiding; Henry M. Hall, was elected Captain; Eugene Hale, 1st Lieutenant; Elbridge K. Hopkins, 2d Lieutenant. The company is one of the best in the State, numbering 102 members.

☞ Captain Boyce of the 16th regiment arrived at home on Tuesday evening.

WHO STOLE THE POCKETBOOK? A day or two ago we mentioned the loss of a pocket-book by one of the unterrified at the democratic meeting at Springfield. We learn this morning that it has been satisfactorily accounted for. Dr. Jordan says that while he "enchanted the audience," Emery stole the pocket-book.

☞ The summer vacation of our city schools will commence on Monday next—the schools to close on Saturday, and remain closed until the 31st of August—nine weeks.

☞ The frost of two weeks since, killed some of the potatoes and beans in Washington county.

☞ A hail storm passed over the south part of Robbinston, June 16th. The glass was nearly all broken in the house of Mr. Enoch Dorr.

ANOTHER SCENE IN THE TROY TRAGEDY. We learn from Mr. Cushman of the Eastern Express that another bloody scene closed the Troy Tragedy, on Tuesday afternoon last. Three young men from Detroit, named Jenkins, Myrick and Hurd, (being on the search for the desperado, Isaac N Grant, who shot officer McKenny of Belfast, on Sunday last,) went down the Sebasticook river in a boat, and discovering fresh tracks at a certain point on the bank, in the edge of Pittsfield, landed, and commenced searching, when Grant and his confederate villain Knowles, suddenly rose from some bushes and fired upon the young men with their revolvers, who returned the fire with guns, almost instantaneously. William H. Jenkins, a most worthy young man, received a shot through the heart and was instantly killed. Myrick was wounded, but we hope not dangerously. Grant, the head villain, was killed by the return fire and by the clubbed muskets of Myrick and Hurd, and Knowles is supposed to be fatally injured.

Officer McKenney, who was wounded on Sunday, has been carried home to Belfast, and it is said there is hope of his recovery.

Altogether this is one of the most bloody and awful tragedies which ever occurred in this State. The excitement in the towns of Detroit, Pittsfield, Troy and that vicinity, consequent upon the shooting and supposed murder of officer McKenney was intense, and caused a general turnout of the people to discover and arrest the murderer. The second and closing scene of the terrible drama has struck still greater horror upon the community. Three, if not four lives have gone from the reckless desperation of one unhung villain, for whom shooting was far too mild a fate.

The bodies of Jenkins and Grant were yesterday in the town house at Detroit, waiting for a coroner. Knowles lies at the hotel in a dying state.

Myrick's wound is not considered dangerous.

[Later intelligence by last evening's train makes it probable that Knowles will recover from his wounds. If so, he will be convicted as accessory to the murder of Jenkins.]

The Belfast Age says the principal wound received by officer McKinney by the hand of Grant, on Sunday, was in his back, (as he was jumping from his wagon,) the ball passing up and lodging under the right shoulder. It is not yet extracted, and Mr McKinney is still in a critical condition.

☞ The funeral of Colonel Douty will take place at Dover Saturday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. It will be attended by the Masonic fraternity.

THE CAVALRY FIGHT NEAR MIDDLEBURG. The following is an extract from a letter of George M Brown of this city, Acting Major of the First Maine Cavalry, giving some hasty details of the battle on Saturday, the 19th:

Camp near Middleburg, June 20, 1863.

We had a severe fight here yesterday, and drove the enemy handsomely. The 1st Maine made a splendid charge. I had companies E and M, and went in on the left against a large party of dismounted men in position behind a stone wall. We made three charges under a murderous fire, the last time with 40 men. I divided my force and charged straight down each side of the fence, killing five and taking 33 prisoners, nearly one for each of us. Among the prisoners were one Lieutenant Colonel, one Captain and two Lieutenants. We brought them all in safely. We had killed and wounded—Lt. Mark Neville, company E, and Sergeant Putnam, company E, killed, private J Sott, wounded in shoulder; George A Russell, wounded in leg; Lieut E H Taylor, company M, killed; Sgt A M Warren, wounded seriously; Serg't John J Thomas, wounded in leg; private Samuel Ingalls, wounded in arm; private Gilman, wounded in head very slightly.

The regiment lost three Lieutenants killed, nine enlisted men killed, 26 enlisted men wounded, and a very few missing.

Lieut Taylor was shot through the neck and killed instantly, while cheering on his men.

☞ There are employed in carrying on the printing business in New York, according to the late census, over eight and a half millions of dollars. Over 5000 persons are employed in printing, using up about $6,000,000 worth of raw material, producing over $11,000,000 worth of books and papers annually.

☞ The Machias Union says that the fishermen at Eastport and vicinity, made the greatest "haul" of pollock fish, on Wednesday last, known on the record as one day's work, for ten years. The boats came in loaded.

☞ We see by the Machias Union that the people of that town have been so foolish, under copperhead advice, as to vote to borrow money to pay the $300 commutation for each man drafted. Do they not understand that the town's quota of men may be called for at any rate, and will be if this policy is pursued to any extent, and if one draft don't bring them, a second and third will be made?

HOW THE LOYAL MEN OF THE SOUTH VIEW IT. We have been permitted to take the following extracts of a letter to a loyal Virginian refugee now in this city, from a Union friend, dated "Glenville, Gilmer County, Virginia"—They show, most strongly, the depressing and disheartening effect of the northern democratic opposition to the administration. The writer says:

"I still trust that God in his own good time may signally lay his chastening hand on all the traitors in our country. But how long this fearful struggle is to last, and what further or additional sacrifice of life and treasure, will be required to restore our glorious Union, are questions time alone can solve.

If the loyal States were united I think the rebellion would soon end. But the miserable demagogues and partizan intriguers in the loyal States are doing an incalculable amount of mischief in prolonging the awful struggle. The secessionists here, as well as elsewhere are rejoicing over all the party discussions and oppositions offered to the administration in the loyal States. I would be glad if every sympathizer in the North was transferred to the South, and placed under the rule of the leading conspirators against our Government. A short period, I presume would dry up the great fountain of all their sympathies. The shocking in disgraceful scenes that have recently transpired in some of the loyal Legislative Halls, have raised in my mind the most serious apprehensions for the fate of our country. It is much more appalling to Union men here, than all the defiant threats of Jeff Davis and his minions. While the destiny of the nation seems to be trembling in the balance, it is shockingly strange that any man, or any set of men, having a spark of love for their country, should do anything to trammel or thwart the Administration in its efforts to crush the infamous rebellion. But it is a lamentable fact, that we find everywhere some corrupt and unholy men, who are ready to join, and pander to party influences that may jeopardize the interest and perpetuity of our Government, that their wicked and selfish schemes and purposes may succeed. It is strange that men can be so blind to their own interest and the interest of their posterity, forgetting the "higher Law," that "righteousness exalteth a nation." I hope the people will arise in the majesty of their strength, and expel from all offices of trust every contemptible sympathizer with the unholy rebellion.—Let the copperheads speedily be driven to their native and loathsome dens."

Prospectus,
OF A
Loyal Union Newspaper
FOR AROOSTOOK.

THE subscribers propose to publish, if sufficient encouragement be given, a Loyal Union Newspaper in Aroostook, to be printed either at Presque Isle or Houlton, as circumstances may hereafter indicate, to be called

THE LOYAL SUNRISE,
EDITED BY DANIEL STICKNEY.

It will give an efficient and unconditional support to all the measures of the government for the suppression of the rebellion. It will advocate the right of all men, white and colored, to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

Knowing as we do, that if this war is prosecuted at all, for the next twenty-one months at least, it must be by the men now in power, that we can have no other loyal, and constitutional President than Abraham Lincoln until after the next President ial election, unless he should be removed by death or otherwise, we shall not cavil or split hairs about the measures of the government, but give them a hearty and constant support, as measures necessary for the suppression of the rebellion, deeming that the President, his Cabinet, and his principal Generals, are the judges of the measures necessary for the accomplishment of an end which if not accomplished, the Union, Constitution, and whole administration of the government must cease to exist.

We propose to make the paper the organ of the loyal men of Aroostook in reference to our local politics; will support as candidates for office those men who shall be nominated and brought before the people for support at the polls, by the unconditional loyal men of the county.

We shall spare no pains to render the paper worthy of patronage, on account of its promoting the business and local interest of every part of the county, and endeavor to make it equal if not superior to any other, as a local paper. In this department we shall give information on the state of the markets and business, and several other features not before attempted in any paper in this county.

We shall give the paper a pure and unexceptionable moral tone, earnestly advocate every measure of reform and improvement, promote by every means in our power the interest of every object lovely, and of good repute, social order, educational and everything which conduces to the elevation and improvement of the community.

All Rum Advertisements, of questionable moral influence, will be excluded from its columns; as also all advertisements of intoxicating drinks in any of their forms, whether under the pretense of medicine or for any other purpose.

It will be published every Wednesday, (so that it may reach every part of the county the same week) on a sheet a little smaller than the other Aroostook papers, with new and small type, so that it will contain more reading matter than either of them, at $1 00 per year in advance. 25 cents will be added to the price for every three months delay in the payment.

The first number will be issued early in August, if sufficient encouragement is given to insure its success. If the loyal citizens of Aroostook desire such a paper, and will give it an early and generous support, it will be established, otherwise not.

The importance of having some organ of communication between the loyal men in this county at this time, and especially in the next Presidential election, in which will be involved the most important issues ever presented to this American people, will readily be appreciated by all.

D. STICKNEY, A.M.

NEW YORK, 24th.

...steamer Eagle, from Havana 20th, via Porto Rico has arrived.

...Alabama has reached Havana, said to have been brought by the British mail steamer from St. Thomas, to Porto Rico, that the pirate Alabama was in Santa Cruz, and that the Vanderbilt got up steam and went to attack her. Heavy firing was heard in the direction of Santa Cruz but nothing was known about it. Some inferred that the Alabama had been captured, and others that the Vanderbilt had been destroyed.

The English mail steamer Trent, from St. Thomas, was out at Havana on the 21st, when the facts could be ascertained.

The heat at Havana was very great, but there had been no cases of yellow fever.

The rebel steamer Alice Vivian has arrived from Mobile with cotton.

NEWPORT, R. I., 24th.

Captain E. Snow of schooner Sarah E. Snow, of Truro, arrived this afternoon.

He reports spoke off Gay Head today at 11 o'clock schooner Western Light, Captain Goodspeed, who had a deck load of men, put on board by the pirate Alabama (probably the Tacony). He also reported that four other vessels preceeded him to New York, loaded with men from the destroyed fishermen.

Captain Goodspeed said the pirate had destroyed upwards of a dozen and of vessels yesterday and this morning, all fishermen, which he fell in with back of Martha's Vineyard; first taking from them everything of value and then setting them on fire.

At 8 o'clock this morning he pirate was still committing depredations on the fish men off Norman's Lands.

WASHINGTON, 24th.

The Richmond Despatch of yesterday contains the following:

Jackson, Miss., June, 18.

The enemy's cavalry made a dash upon our outposts near Edwards Depot, yesterday, but found them too strong, and retired across the Big Black again.

Scarcely a day passes without an accident on the Meridian railroad, which, being our principal means for transportation of supplies, has retarded Johnston's movements.

Firing continues at Vicksburg.

Jackson, June 19th.

A special despatch to the Mississippian dated Panola, 18th, says a heavy force of Yankee cavalry is marching on Sneadsville. Between that point and Grenada, Hatch's and Wilder's Yankee cavalry are rigging rafts to cross at Tallahatchie, with the intention of destroying the road below Panola, and cutting off Johnston's supplies.

Another force is crossing the Coldwater near Senatobia. They came from Memphis.

General Johnston has issued orders granting a full pardon to all deserters who will rejoin their commands immediately.

There is nothing from Vicksburg or Port Hudson. No firing was heard this morning.

Jackson, 20th, via Mobile, 21st.

A soldier who escaped from Louisville on the 5th reports that Major Thompson and F. M. Cowan, were taken to the jail in that place, and hung, under General Burnside's order forbidding recruiting in that State.

Citizens just in report a heavy engagement between Johnston's cavalry and the enemy at Big Black Bridge.

At the time they left, the musketry and cannonading were awful, and terrific firing is heard in the direction of Vicksburg.

WASHINGTON, 24th.

Gen Grant has telegraphed to headquarters as follows.

"Near Vicksburg, June 18th, Via Cairo, 23d.

Everything progresses well here.

Johnston's forces are at Yazoo City, Brownsville and Clinton.

Deserters come out daily. They all report rations short.

We scarcely ever lose a man now.

The health and condition of the troops are most excellent."

Dispatches from Gen Banks have been received at the War Department, to the effect that on the 14th, having established his batteries within 350 yards of rebel works at Port Hudson, after a vigorous cannonade, he summoned Gen Gardner to surrender. On his refusal, an assault was made, and our forces gained positions within 50 to 100 yards of the enemy's works, which they held.

General Paine was severly wounded.

General Banks expressed himself in silent of success.

HALIFAX, 24th.

Steamship Canada, from Liverpool via Queenstown, arrived at 8:30 this afternoon. Her news was forwarded by telegraph from Cape Race.

The ship China H. Lunt, from Calais, is ashore near Bremer's Haven.

Steamship Germany sailed from Halifax for New York yesterday afternoon.

The Canada will sail at 9 o'clock this evening for Boston.

NEW YORK, 24th.

Bark Evening Star of New Haven, arrived at Arroyo, P. R., June 8th, reports, May 28th, lat 55 20, lon 64, was chased four hours by a pirate brig, who fired seven shots, but the Evening Star outsailed her and escaped.

PHILADELPHIA, 23d.

Jay Cooke, the Subscription Agent reports the sale of $1,655,000 of 5-20s to-day, at the various agencies.

FORTRESS MONROE, 23d.

Gunboat James Adger and sloop-of-war Tuscorora arrived in Hampton Roads last evening.

Steamer Convoy arrived today from Newbern N. C. She brings no news.

The James Adger sailed from Hampton Roads this afternoon—also the transport John Brooks.

The 5th Mass. regiment arrived today from Newbern, N. C. Their term of enlistment has expired. They today volunteered the remainder of their term, and entered at once into the service under the General's commanding.

The transport City of Albany, from New York 18th, reports having seen the masts of a schooner, bearing Southeast half East from Cape Henlopen light, about four miles distant, 15 feet out of water.

The contrabands are being removed from Suffolk and the vicinity of Norfolk, in large numbers, and placed in charge of Dr Breese of Norfolk.

JEFFERSON CITY, 24th.

The majority report or emancipation was taken up today in the convention. A amendment was offered substituting January 1, 1864, for 1876—lost 18 to 65.

Mr Breckinridge offered as a substitute for the majority report, the ordinance introduced by him a few days since, abolishing slavery in 1864 and apprenticing the slaves so emancipated, for 12 years.

An amendment was offered to Mr Breckenridge's substitute that it should be the duty of the Legislature at the first session after the passage of this ordinance to devise means for ascertaining the number of slaves belonging to loyal citizens and appropriate $300 for each of such such slaves, to be paid to their owners—agreed to, 42 to 40.

Mr Foster offered an amendment providing for the abolition of slavery in 1873, an apprenticing all minors until they reach the age of 21. This amendment only received two votes.

FORTRESS MONROE, 24th.

U. S. gunboat Sumter was run into, last night off Cape Henry, and sunk. Her crew arrived here this afternoon.

WASHINGTON, 24th.

It is ascertained that with exception of some slight skirmishing in the Bull Run Valley, there was no fighting yesterday.

All is quiet along the lines, apparently, to-day.

Yesterday, owing to some misapprehension, some of Mosby's cavalry came upon the Chantilly road near Cub Run, and destroyed several wagons with ammunition, forage, &c. They were pursued and it is reported that some of them were captured.

Several bundles of newspapers were seized and confiscated yesterday, but, for what reason is not publicly known.

BALTIMORE, 24th.

Later and reliable advices from Frederick represent that there are no rebels near there, and that the force in the valley beyond South Mountain have made no movement in that direction. There are no regiments east of Boonsboro, which is four miles west of South Mountain.

Information received at headquarters to-night goes to confirm the previous accounts of a very large force being in the valley west of Boonsboro. They were moving northward, but it is not ascertained whether they are taking the Chambersburg road or the road leading towards Gettysburg.

The artillery of the rebels is said to number 61 pieces.

Headquarters Army of Potomac, June 24th.

All quiet in our front to-day.

Reconnoissances to the Rappahannock show there is no rebel force this side above Kelly's Ford.

We hold all the gaps of the Ball Run range.

Four wagons were captured and destroyed by some of Mosby's partisans yesterday.

PHILADELPHIA, 24th.

HARRISBURG, 24th.

The rebels are within 25 miles of Harrisburg. The enemy's column halted about dusk about eight miles the other side of Carlisle and went into camp.

The authorities are in telegraphic communication with Greyson's Station, two miles from the rebel pickets.

The result of tomorrow's operations is looked forward to with much anxiety.

General Knipe may give the enemy battle at Carlisle or he can fall back to the Susquehanna. A battle will undoubtedly be fought on the place evacuated before tomorrow night.

General Couch has thrown a strong column in the neighborhood of Gettysburg on the right flank.

This, in connection with certain movements by the Army of the Potomac, will make it a dangerous experiment for them to attempt to hold the line of the Susquehanna.

Numerous arrests have been made today on the south side of the river of parties suspected of being rebel spies and guerillas, but on cases being investigated, most of them proved to be refugees.

The clerks and other attaches of the State capitol today organized themselves into a company for the defence of the city.

General Andrew Porter arrived here today and tendered his services to the authorities.

It is reported and believed that Gen. Milroy has been relieved of his command.

It is known here to a certainty that twenty regiments of rebel infantry passed through Quinbersbury today. Important events are likely to transpire tomorrow.

LOCAL AND MAINE NEWS.

☞ Last Sunday, little Ida, three years old, went to church for the first time. His mother gave him a penny to put into the contribution box, which he did, and then sat still for a few moments, and then wanted to know how soon the man was coming with the candy.

☞ The "Umpire," one of the vessels recently captured by the rebels, was a good brig of 96 tons, built at Sullivan, Me., in 1851, and was owned by Messrs. John S Emery & Co, of Boston, and others. The vessel was valued at $5000, on which there was a war risk of $1200. There was a war risk of $400 on freight money. She had on board a full cargo of sugar and molasses, consigned to Messrs. Cobb, Foster & Co., of Boston.

☞ The Press states that John Russell, Jr., Esq., has resigned the office of Superintendent of the P S & P Railroad—a situation he has held for upwards of fourteen years, to the acceptance of the public. His successor has not yet been appointed.

☞ The receipts on the Grand Trunk Railway for the week ending June 18, were $80,222 76

FINDING OF TWO DROWNED MEN. In Augusta on Monday last, as we learn from the Portland Courier correspondent, while a workman was engaged in clearing out the flume which conducts the water to the saw mills at the dam, and from which the water had been drawn for that purpose, he discovered, almost entirely buried among the chips and sticks that always collect just above the rack, what he thought was a part of a dead horse, having the appearance of the skin of that animal after being long immersed in water, and divested of hair. A slight examination proved it to be a human hand, and the dead body of a man was found lying upon its side, almost buried in the debris. The workman was frightened and hastened up to tell what he had found, when a boy who had been looking for bits of old iron, found within almost twenty feet of the first, another body. This one lay on the face, and both seemed to have been lying in the water a long time. Today the bodies were taken out and identified. The first discovered was a man named Plummer, who has been missing since the departure of the 23th Regiment. The others name was Kimball, and the body was identified by his wife, who lives in the city. He had been missing since last all, and suspicions were entertained of foul play. It is somewhat remarkable that two should be found in such a place so near each other.

☞ Count Berg, the bloodhound, who, in 1831, advised the Emperor Nicholas to adopt the most sanguinary measures, when lately despatched to Warsaw, to command that place and ferret out the conspirators, is said to have had a conversation with the Grand Duke Constantine, in which he confessed his inability to find more than two loyal persons in all Warsaw.—"Your Imperial Highness is one of them, and I am the other."

☞ The Cincinnati Gazette learns from private sources that General Rosecrans is, as usual, wide awake. His army is under marching orders, and in readiness to move if it shall be found necessary to do so. Any movement indicating that the enemy is weakening his lines by withdrawing forces from his rear, will meet with immediate punishment on his front.

MAINE CENTRAL RAILROAD. We have received from Edwin Noyes, Esq., the energetic Superintendent of the Maine Central Railroad, the annual reports for the year ending June 1st. From these reports we learn that the company owns the Railroad from Danville Junction to this city, a traction less than 110 miles in length.

The liabilities of the company so far as they are secured by mortgages upon the road, or any part of it amount to $2,568,477.

The earnings of the road for the past year amount to $328,381,95, being an increase of $38 769,09 over those of the previous year.—The expenses in operating the road, and for renewals and repairs in the rolling stock, fences, buildings, &c., amount to $149,903,46.

The number of passengers carried last year was 97,532. The previous year it was 90,441. The number of tons of merchandise transported last year was 62,154. The previous year it was 55,061.

The amount paid for internal revenue was $8,021,22.

The Secretary of War has given orders that the regiments now leaving New York for Pennsylvania are to be sworn in for one month only.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK—for July, read by ...22 E. P. DURREE.

LARGE SALE OF ... On Thomas' Hill, AT AUCTION! J. B. FOSTER, Auctioneer. On Wednesday, July 15th, 1863. At 3 o'clock P. M., on the premises, I SHALL SELL all the Lots now unsold, on the Southerly side of James Street (as per Plan of Lots made for J. W. Low, Esq., and recorded in the Penobscot Registry of Deeds, book 3, page 77)—beginning with Lot No. 1, adjoining the residence of Mrs. Dailey, on Union Street. Lots No. 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5, front on James Street, and run back 100 feet, to an alley 16 feet wide. Lot No. 1, is 100 feet on James by 100 feet on Union. Lots 2, 3, 4, and 5, are 77 by 100 feet. Lots 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, and 13, are on the Easterly side of Thomas Street—and all but No. 13, are 75 by 140 feet. No. 13, has a front of about 200 feet on James Street—and on Ohio Street about 300 feet, and adjoins the premises of Horatio Fitcher, Esq.

To a resident of the city, these Lots need no commendation. The stranger has only to examine, to admire them. There is no locality in the city that offers so many attractions for residences as Thomas' Hill. Already, two of the most elegant and anxious in the city have been erected there, and it cannot be long before all the vacant Lots will be taken up and occupied. These Lots combine the advantage of convenient proximity to the city with the retirement of the country. The view from Thomas' Hill is beautiful and grand beyond description.

This sale offers a rare opportunity to any one desirous of securing a desirable location for building; and to the speculator who wants to invest where he can be sure of a profit.

The sale will be positive. One-quarter of the purchase money to be paid down; the balance on any time to suit the convenience of the purchaser—not exceeding four years—with interest.

A Plan of the Lots can be seen, by calling upon the Auctioneer, or upon J. W. LOW. June 11, 1863. 6td (Times)

LYON'S KATHAIRON. Kathairon is derived from the Greek word "Kathairo," or Kathairo," signifying to cleanse, rejuvinate and restore. This article is what its name signifies. For preserving, restoring and beautifying the human hair it is the most remarkable preparation in the world. It is owned and put up by the original proprietor, and is now made with the same care, skill and attention which gave it a sale of over one million bottles per annum.

It is a most delightful Hair Dressing.
It eradicates scurf and dandruff.
It keeps the head cool and clean.
It makes the hair rich, soft and glossy.
It prevents the hair from falling off and turning gray.
It restores hair upon bald heads.

Any lady or gentleman who values a beautiful head of hair should use Lyon's Kathairon. It is known and used throughout the civilized world—Sold by all respectable dealers.

First Regiment Maine

HEAVY ARTILLERY.

DANIEL CHAPLIN, Colonel Com'dg.

$97 Advance before leaving the State.

The Last Chance Yet Offered!

VOLUNTEERS WANTED for a full Company of Picked and Picky able bodied men, for the above regiment

By an order from the War Department, the 18th Regiment Maine Volunteers has been transferred to Heavy Artillery

The duties and exposure of this service are much less than any other, as Heavy Artillery perform no field duty, are quartered in permanent Barracks, and drilled without being loaded down with their knapsack, &c, the duties always being performed in Forts.

It will be borne in mind that this is the only Maine Regiment of Heavy Artillery; that it is located near Washington, in a very healthy and pleasant spot.

All State and United States bounties paid. Pay $13 to $21 per month, with Clothing and Rations

Call at office in Wasselbright & Clark's Block for further part culars.

Col. DANIEL CHAPLIN,

A Regiment unsurpassed by any in the service, having been complimented by the War Department by being selected as the Regiment from our State to be transferred to Heavy Artillery, and being designated as the 1st Maine Regiment of Heavy Artillery, will be recruited to the maximum of Eighteen Hundred, rank and file

The undersigned invite enlistments for Company D, Capt. C. V. GROSSMAN, almost exclusively

A Bangor Company,

The Regiment is now stationed in Forts and Batteries in the Northern Defenses of Washington, in healthy locations and the Artillery arm of the service presents inducements to recruits above any other

All United States and State Bounties paid.

Provost Marshal General's Office,

WASHINGTON, May 22, 1863.

Notice.

THE attention of all officers, who have been honorably discharged on account of wounds or disability, and who desire to re-enter the service in the Invalid Corps, is called to the provisions of General Orders, No 105, series, from the War Department, published in the papers throughout the country. Such officers are requested to comply promptly with the provisions of that order, and to send their written applications, as therein provided, for positions in the Invalid Corps, (relating less observer of their disability,) which an Invalid enjoy as possible, to the Adjutant General's Office, Provost Marshal General of the State in which they may be; such Acting Assistant Provost Marshal General shall at once forward the applications, with his endorsement, to the Provost Marshal General of the State.

Officers of the Invalid Corps will be appointed immediately upon receiving the papers, entered by General Order No 105, series, from War Department. Their pay and other allowances will commence from date of appointment, and not from date of organization, or the respective commands to which they may be assigned.

POOR RICHARD'S

EYE AND EAR WATER.

This is the Best Preparation in the World!

RADER are you aware that every time you think, speak or act, you draw on your eyes for strength to do so? Now you are debtor to them and if they have not accorded your body and shut it up in the prison of disease remember they must assuredly will if you do not satisfy their claim (which is a small one) for all the services they render you continually! They are crying to you for help every blood streak is a voice Hear their cry, and save yourself by saving them Give them a drink of POOR RICHARD'S EYE WATER, Morning and Night This is all they ask and they will positively keep your body out of the prison house of disease They do not want to lose time in explanations Try them and prove them By faithful perseverance, Deafness can be cured and preserved Bathe both eyes and ears

A Remarkable Cure in Bangor

I, W H PRITCHARD, do certify that my wife Esther S, has had Weak Eyes from childhood caused by measles One year since she began to appeared on the lids of her eyes It increased to the size of a large pea. Becoming somewhat alarmed about the progress it was making I took my wife to Mrs M G BROWN at the Exchange She told me she could remove it, and further strengthen her eyes Mrs B applied her medicine at seven o'clock in the evening, and at nine o'clock the lump was gone We could see no more of it My wife can now see people walking on the other side of the street which she could never do before She has always had headache when riding in a carriage Yesterday when riding in a carriage, she had no return of headache My own eyes were treated two or three times by Mrs Brown I find them much strengthened W H PRITCHARD
